

CORA HOWELL

CONTACT

- +512-663-6342
- corahowell.writing@gmail.com
- Address upon request
- corahowell.com

EDUCATION

2022 - 2026

JAMES MARTIN HIGH SCHOOL

- GPA: 3.9/ 4.0
- Distinguished level of achievement
- Multidisciplinary Studies

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH TEXAS
PRESENT- 2030

- Bachelors in Converged Broadcast Journalism

EXPERIENCE

Martin High School Literary Magazine 2022 - 2026
Editor

- Edited and selected student submissions for publication.
- Collaborated with Literary Magazine staff to produce annual magazine.
- Published seven original works featuring poetry and opinion writing.
- Knowledgeable in Adobe InDesign, Canva, and other publishing applications.

Texas Youth and Government 2024 - 2026
Media delegate

- State qualifying media delegate for two years.
- Published multiple articles on the Youth and Government website.
- Conducted interviews with delegates, student leaders, and staff.
- Published social media posts and videos under official Youth and Government page.

SKILLS

- Creativity
- Graphic Design
- Time Management
- Feature Writing
- Public Speaking
- Editing
- Interviewing

PUBLICATIONS

Texas Youth and Government

- "Remaining Composed in the Face of Controversy"- Youth and Government (2026)
<https://ymcatexasyg.org/remaining-composed-in-the-face-of-controversy/>
- "One Last Time"- Youth and Government (2026)
<https://ymcatexasyg.org/one-last-time/>
- "We Can Be Heroes"- Youth and Government (2026)
<https://ymcatexasyg.org/we-can-be-heroes/>

Martin High School Literary Magazine
(PDFS available upon request)

- "Tomorrow a Pirate"- Martin Literary Magazine (2026)
- "A.I and Its Dire Implications to the Environment"- Martin Literary Magazine (2026)
- "Forewarnings of Oligarchy"- Martin Literary Magazine (2025)
- "On Mornings Such as These"- Martin Literary Magazine (2025)
- "What Was I Made For?"- Martin Literary Magazine (2024)

HONORS/AWARDS

- Distinguished Media Delegate, Texas Youth and Government
- Published writer, Youth and Government
- Published writer, Martin High School Literary Magazine